TOP 10 SEDANS NOVEMBER 2023

The demand for sedans in India is declining. SUVs dominate the market in the small and medium segments, and hatchbacks are also popular. The sales data of the top 10 sedans in November 2023 confirms this trend. The sales dropped by 15.77% YoY and by 3.33% MoM. In November 2022, 36,405 units were sold, but in November 2023, only 30,665 units were sold. The previous month, October 2023, had 31,721 units sold. The Maruti DZire was the only sedan in the top 10 that increased its sales both YoY and MoM. It sold 15,965 units in November 2023, up by 10.44% from 14,456 units in November 2022 and by 8.61% from 14,699 units in October 2023.

CV RETAIL SALES NOVEMBER 2023

Retail sales of commercial vehicles (CVs) declined by 1.82% year-on-year (YoY) in November 2023, reaching 84,586 units. This was also a 4.64% drop from the previous month.

The main reasons for this slump were low market confidence, erratic rainfall, cash crunch and supply bottlenecks. The light commercial vehicle (LCV) segment was the worst hit, with a 6.28% YoY fall in sales to 48,322 units. The medium commercial vehicle (MCV) segment grew by 3.82% YoY to 5,276 units, while the heavy commercial vehicle (HCV) segment increased by 0.39% YoY to 26,690 units. The other CVs category also saw a significant growth of 47.04% YoY and 4.50% month-on-month (MoM) to 4,198 units in November 2023.
